These courses are offered through Clackamas Community College and are not affiliated with or approved by the Oregon Department of Education or the Teacher Standards and Practices Commission. This information is supplied by Clackamas Community College.

These courses are offered online.

A new CTE teacher will need three of the following courses. Courses in blue are offered through Clackamas Community College.

Classroom Management ED130 – Comprehensive Classroom Management	Multicultural Education ED258 – Multicultural Education
Introduction to CTE in Oregon	Second Language Acquisition ED254 – Instructional Strategies for English Language Learners
Introduction to the Education Profession ED100 – Introduction to Education	Human Development for Adolescents,
Oregon School Law including a focus on Special Needs Students, ED169 – Overview of Students with Special Needs (focused more on strategies than law – law is covered in ED100 and ED200)	Education Psychology & Learning Development ED229 – Learning and Development

and

Curriculum Design	Instructional Strategies & Assessment ED131 – Instructional Strategies

and

Both of the following courses:

Instructional Methodology – Math ED114 – Instructional Strategies in Math & Science	Instructional Methodology – Reading, Writing and Literacy ED113 – Instructional Strategies in Reading and Language Arts

	Fall Term	Winter Term	Spring Term	Summer
Recommended Year 1	ED100 – Introduction to Education	ED229 – Learning and Development (former title: Psychology of Learning)	ED130 – Comprehensive Classroom Management	ED235 – Educational Technology
Recommended Year 2	ED131 Instructional Strategies	ED169 – Overview of Students with Special Needs or ED254 Instructional Strategies for Dual Language Learners	ED 258- Multicultural Education
Recommended Year 3	ED 113- Instructional Strategies in Reading and Language Arts		ED114-Instructional Strategies in Math and Science	